ECOINTENTION II - ONLINE

Accelerate your inner growth and realize your goals

What is your wishlist?

An ECOintention balancing starts with a wishlist. What goals do you want to achieve in 2021 when you think about your home, your family, and work? Don't forget to ask your partner and children. They may also add their own wishlist to your ECOintention project.

Work with your energetic toolbox

You learn the effect of symbols on the energy of your project. These will become part of your energetic toolkit and be used to balance your project. Balancing your project is done using the ground plan of your home. The energy improves. Stress harmonizes. Rooms clear up. Your home and work become an organic whole in which everything falls into place.

Improve your energetic observations

You will learn how to interpret the energetic development of your project. You will know when time is on your side and be able to predict when circumstances are favourable to achieve your goals. The effect of your balancing is enhanced through energy control points at site. You check them regularly.

Project Energy Scan

Your project focuses on your home, family and work. Before you start, your instructors will make an energy scan to determine whether you are able to balance your project, how much time it will take, and whether your goals are achievable.

Immediate feedback

Every two weeks you will test the energy of your project and mail the result to your coach. Your coach will reply the next day with feedback on how accurate your testing was. This immediate feedback accelerates your learning process.

Receive the diploma ECOintention Advanced I

At the end of the course you are expected to write a short project report, to give a presentation to your group on how the year went, and to pass a theory and dowsing test. Completion of these requirements and participation in an online ECOintention Practice module entitles you to an ECOintention Advanced I diploma.

Master of Science

The ECOintention II course is the second year of the four-year ECOintention Vocational Training degree. This degree is officially registered with the Dutch government and accredited by the Ubiquity University in the United States of America as a Master of Science study.
