ECOINTENTION

This Intensive teaches ECOintention, a method to restore energy and flow in organizations and nature. By directing energy with intention, you can improve well-being, vitality, and production.

Mind Moves Matter

ECOintention connects ancient wisdom with modern science into a practical method.

The main principle is “Mind Moves Matter.”

 Center for ECOintention

WOULD YOU LIKE TO DISCOVER THE POWER OF ENERGY MANAGEMENT? CREATE IMPACT THROUGH LIFE ENERGY? STAY WELL-BALANCED IN TURBULENT TIMES? YOU CAN!

Energy management

In this ECOintention Intensive you will learn how to perceive and improve life energy. And how to apply this to yourself and your work. In a very practical way. Energy management by ECOintention is profound and sustainable.

More quality and impact

This Intensive is meant for Aberkyn and McKinsey professionals who want more quality and impact in life and work. And want to develop their intuition too. No prior knowledge or experience is required. Anyone can master energy management.

You can expect

- Eight 4,5 hour webinars in Sep-Dec 2021,
- A top teacher,
- Learning by doing,
- Thorough theoretical foundation.

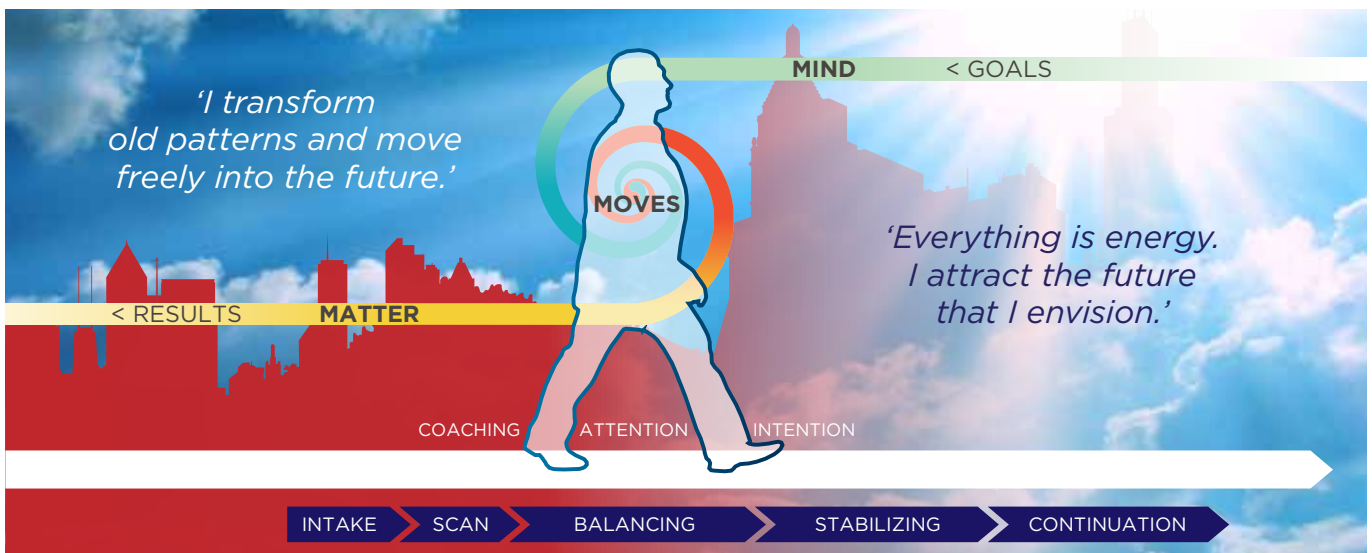

Get energized

ECOintention webinars are fun. You won't be tired after a 4,5 hour module, because you learn to protect yourself against electrosmog. Perceive energy through the screen of your pc, and experience a new way of online learning: energizing and inspiring, grounded and connected.

After this intensive you are able to

- Use the power of your intention,
- Be more successful in your daily work,
- Clean energy in your home and offices,
- Direct the energy of your home and Aberkyn Hub.
- Join in 2022 the 2nd year of the 4 year ECOintention vocational training, and learn to balance your home, garden and work.

The ECOintention Practitioner vocational training is awarded by the Ubiquity University (USA) with a Master of Science degree.

OUR CURRENT CHALLENGES ARE TOO COMPLEX TO TACKLE IN THE USUAL WAY. NEW WAYS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED. ENERGY MANAGEMENT IS SUCH A NEW, INNOVATIVE WAY.

Sustainable transformation

Sustainable transformation needs to be supported in different layers of the everyday reality. In the world of action and matter, the world of relationships, but also in the layer of life energy and information. Up till now this is a missing link.

Essential conditions

Everything consists of life energy. It is the foundation of life, and everywhere around you. Healing energy fields creates the essential conditions for sustainable transformation in all layers of reality. That's why energy management is so important.

Anyone can do it

Everything has energetic radiance, which is a measure of vitality. The radiance of a building affects the health of its residents. Everyone can perceive radiance. It does not require a special talent.

It all starts with you

You are the key factor in energy management. This is why you will learn to

- Ground yourself well,
- Know your sensitivity,
- Energetically protect yourself,
- Balance your own energy.

ECOintention energy management offers

- Increasing awareness and impact,
- Making shifts on a deeper personal level,
- Fundamental innovation in your work,
- Powerful tools to be a force for good in the world.

WHAT YOUR ABERKYN COLLEAGUES SAY ABOUT ECOINTENTION ENERGY MANAGEMENT

"This energy work has opened my awareness to a realm of new solutions for myself and my clients."

(Annette Bak Kirby)

"The Energy Balancing work has the tangible benefit of regularly connecting me into the rest of the Aberkyn community and its mission in the world."

(Jim Allen)

"During turbulent times I found energy data and practice really helped to make sense of what was happening in our hub and what was underlying it."

(Kris Morton)

"The energy balancing helps me very much in staying balanced and 'holding' my leadership roles in the midst of the turmoil of the 'merging rivers'."

(Ada Otten)

"Balancing the Americas field has brought 'magic'. It has provided healing for individuals, brought about synchronistic events that help the hub and gives inspiration." (Kai Grünewald)

"The work with ECOintention has supported us globally and in Asia Pacific to get back into flow after the turbulent integration phase with McKinsey."

(Roger Swaving)

"Being handed the skill to read and balance energy fields in my daily work allows me to serve and act from a significantly raised level of awareness."

(Fleur Tonies)

"My work with ECOintention allowed me to experience energy and to feel it with my hands, direct it where it is most needed, and balance it in service of creating the biggest impact with our clients."

(Rawan Albina)

"Being involved in the energetic balancing of Aberkyn has increased my ability to sense how I deal with my own energy and to sense the energy of teams and systems." (Robin Groeneveld)

THE GRASS DOESN'T GROW FASTER IF YOU PULL IT. THE GRASS GROWS FASTER IF YOU THINK OF IT.
