Energy Management Intensive

Join us for an energizing and transformative experience in this Intensive. Unlock your true potential by tapping into the boundless energy of the universe. Whether you seek more quality in life and work, or wish to develop your intuition, this Intensive is designed for you. No prior knowledge or experience is required.

What can you expect?

- 8 webinars in autumn 2023
- Expert guidance: Hans Andeweg, co-founder of Center for ECOintention
- Practical learning-by-doing approach
- Thorough theoretical foundation
- Supportive videos and meditations

Energy management is a profession you can learn

- By completing this Intensive, you will gain the skills to improve life energy in various aspects of your life, including spaces, and nature.
- You will learn how to determine and implement actions to enhance energy and bring it back to its optimal state using different tools.
- Additionally, you can progress to the 2nd year of the Vocational Training to become an ECOintention Practitioner.

It all starts with you

In this Intensive, you will focus on personal Energy Management. You will learn essential techniques such as grounding, understanding your sensitivity, self-protection, and balancing your own energy. Through simple practical exercises you will quickly become familiar with the principles of Energy Management that can be applied anywhere.

Theoretical foundation

The course is based on the books "The Universe Loves A Happy Ending" and "In Resonance With Nature" by Hans Andeweg. This ensures a solid theoretical foundation for your energy management journey.

Unleash the power of life energy

Life energy permeates everything around us, serving as a vital force for our health and the realization of our goals. Mastering the flow of life energy is the secret to manifesting the life you desire.

Accessible to all

Perceiving the life energy of spaces and nature does not require any special talent. Everyone can learn to recognize the vitality and brilliance present in different environments.

WHY ENERGY MANAGEMENT IS IMPORTANT

In today's world, blockages and energetic stress can drain the energy from you, your home, or nature. Our Intensive equips you with the necessary skills to restore harmony and vitality to yourself and your environment.

Center of expertise

Center for ECOintention is an internationally recognized hub of expertise in Energy Management. With over 25 years of experience, we are dedicated to empowering individuals and organizations with practical tools for harmonizing and revitalizing themselves and their environments.

Expert guidance

Your instructor, Hans Andeweg MSc, co-founder of Center for ECOintention, brings over three decades of experience working with life energy in various settings, including organizations, companies, and nature reserves. With his guidance, you will embark on a profound journey of self-discovery.

ECOINTENTION VOCATIONAL TRAINING

- Upon completion of the Intensive, you can continue your journey in Feb. 2024 in the 2nd year of the 4-year ECOintention Practitioner Vocational Training.
- Year 2 covers in-depth energy balancing of your home, work, and nature.
- Subsequent years focus on coaching and balancing energy in companies, nature reserves, and events.
- ECOintention Practitioners pursue the profession independently or integrate it with their current job.
- The ECOintention Vocational Training is registered by the Dutch government, and awarded by the Ubiquity University (USA) with a Master of Science degree.
